PROFILE

Creative technologist with a background in Visual Arts, Fashion and Interaction Design. My work blends craftsmanship, technology and human-centered design into digital and physical interactions. I am excited about how design and technology can merge into creative problem-solving and meaningful narratives.

MASTER'S FINAL PROJECT

TELARIA – VR INSTALLATION 2026
HEAD – Geneva University of Art and Design, Master in Media Design

Blending ancient ritual and contemporary technology, Telaria is a free-roam VR installation built around a reactive haptic cape. Inspired by Tupinambá indigenous spirituality, the experience invites visitors to wear a connected garment and roam inside the body of an ancient creature, exploring its senses through light, sound and vibrations.
